They booked into Strawberry Park, a resort located between Tanah Rata and Brinchang. It is built on six hectares of a former strawberry field - hence the name!

After unpacking their bags, the family made a tour of the hotel. They could see why the hotel was so popular. There was an indoor swimming pool where one could swim even in cold temperatures. For sports enthusiasts, there were tennis and badminton courts.. Children could have a fun time in the games room and the playground. Besides these facilities, the hotel also organized "Tai-Chi" exercises for the older people, while the more adventurous could go jungle trekking.

Later Mr. Lim decided to drive the family to Tanah Rata to have a light meal. On the way, they passed by a typical English country home stay called Smokehouse Inn where they served traditional English tea and scones. After the meal they drove on. Just before Ringlet, they stopped at the Lake house, situated beside a lake. The hotel was unusual as it tried to create a Scottish atmosphere. Here, the staff even wore kilts made of tartan of the Cameron Clan. This tickled the children tremendously.

The next morning, they visited a tea plantation. There the children learned how tea was processed. Next, they visited the Rose Garden where they could feast their eyes on the many different varieties of roses. Mrs. Lim could not resist buying two dozens pink and red roses. Since the Highland was noted for their fresh vegetables, a visit to a vegetable farm in Brinchang is a must. Life's Brief Candle

To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
 Creeps in this petty pace from day to day
 To the last syllable of recorded time,
 And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
 The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
 Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player,
 That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
 And then is heard no more; it is a tale
 Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
 Signifying nothing.
