Home Safety Tips

• Front door and grille

These two must be locked at all times. Please install iron grilles with good quality key-operated locks for windows.

• Be a good neighbour

Neighbours can play a key role in preventing home thefts.

• No dark patches and escape routes

Burglars prefer to target homes that have hiding spots and escape routes in the yards, and abundant bushes and trees that make for great cover. So install lamps with sensors to brighten up your compound and detect intruders.

• Install alarms

A security system is your best protection.

• Keep radio running

Noise helps prevent burglaries as well. When you leave your radio on all day, the would-be burglars would think that someone is at home.

• Visitors

Please inform your family members if you are sending unknown visitors to your house.

Adapted from ADT website

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Rice is a cereal grain grown mainly in Asia and other parts of the world. It is the staple food of a large percentage of the human race especially in Asia. It is the third largest produced agriculture commodity in the world after maize and sugarcane.

Rice is the most important grain which provides calories for nearly one fifth of the entire human population in the world.

It is believed to have originated about nearly thirteen thousand years ago in the Pearl River Valley region of China. It then spread to other parts of Asia and South East Asia. Rice was introduced to Europe through Western Asia.

There are many varieties of rice today. It was originally grown as an annual plant but today rice is cultivated three times a year in certain countries. The original method of rice cultivation has now been replaced with modern methods using machinery in most countries to ensure higher yield.

Subject: Attractions at the Jubilee Funfair
Hello Micahel, I am so glad you are going to the Jubilee Funfair. Let me tell you about my top three choices. Go on to the roller-coaster ride because it is so thrilling. Then, try the sky Glider. You will sit in a chairlift which goes 40 feet up in the air and back down again. I screamed all the way down but it was a lot of fun. Another attraction is the river raft ride. You will love rafting down the river with icy water splashing all over you. I hope you have fun on your outing. Bye. Your friend, Hazli

Section C

Question 1

Last Friday, Samy, Ming Seng and Jamil were playing football on the school field. The field was wet so it was muddy and slippery.

They were enjoying themselves in the field. Suddenly, Samy kicked the ball to the goalpost. Jamil ran to stop it but he slipped. He fell and cried out in pain. Samy and Ming Seng quickly ran to help. They were very frightened. They saw a cut on Jamil's calf and it was bleeding. Samy and Ming Seng helped Jamil up and walked him to a bench at the edge of the field.

A teacher saw the incident and ran over to them with a first-aid kit. The teacher cleaned and bandaged the cut. They thanked their teacher gratefully. After that, Samy and Ming Seng accompanied Jamil home. They regretted and promised to turn over a new leaf.

Question 2

Last weekend, my school held a cleanliness campaign. The aim of this campaign is to beautify our school. My classmates and I gathered at the school early in the morning. We were told to bring along pails, rakes and rags.

Before we cleaned the school compound, the teachers divided us into groups. Each group was assigned to different chores. My group was asked to clean the drains. Other groups were assigned to gather dried leaves, painted the wall and pruned the plants.

At the end of the campaign, our headmaster praised us for our school's new look. We were given free lunch and drinks. We were tired but happy because we would have a pollution free environment to live in.
